Waiver Request 55 West 57th Street

Board to consider an an ordinance waiving a public sidewalk requirement.

Background Of Subject Matter

The petitioner is building a new single family home which is on a landlocked parcel that will be accessed by a driveway easement shared by adjacent parcels. Code requires building a public sidewalk along all rights-of-way where none exist.

Additional Background

Applicant request cash-in-lieu payment. 57th St. has not yet been built or planned for, and there are no sidewalks constructed in this neighborhood.

Recommendation

Per Chapter 70, Article VI, Sec. 70-204(b), only the Village Board can grant a waiver of the sidewalk requirement.

Development Request 111 West Ogden Avenue PLACED ON THE OCTOBER 1, 2012
REGULAR BOARD MEETING FOR CONSIDERATION.

Board to consider an ordinance approving a commercial masonry waiver request from Taco Bar and Salsa Grill to expand the outdoor cooler in the rear parking lot of this restaurant.

Background Of Subject Matter

Jose Oliver of Taco Grill will use the existing cooler & add one from his Lombard restaurant, which has since closed. Mr. Oliver seeks approval of a waiver of the full masonry requirement, since the outside walk-in cooler is not constructed of masonry.

Additional Background

By code, all commercial improvements must be constructed of solid masonry. The applicant has provided background materials which are attached. The cooler will not create a parking shortage or be visible from Ogden Avenue.

Recommendation

Staff does not have concerns about the cooler expansion.
